UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RONALD JOHNSON,
Plaintiff,

No.

v.

CV 11 - 1777

CHERYL WALKER-JOHNSON and) JESUS M. MALDONADO, Esq.)
Defendants.)

DISCRIMINATION

WHA

Plaintiff RONALD JOHNSON alleges:

JURISDICTION

1. Plaintiff is, and was at all times herein mentioned, domiciled in and a citizen of the State of California. Defendants and each of them are, and were at all times herein mentioned, domiciled in and a citizen of the State of California. This is a civil action involving, exclusive of interest and costs, a sum in excess of $50,000.00.

FIRST COUNT

2. At all times herein mentioned, plaintiff was and now is a resident of the judicial district in which this action is filed.
3. At all times herein mentioned, defendant, CHERYL WALKER-JOHNSON, hired the attorney JESUS M. MALDONADO, Esq. effective date of hire is Feb, 16, 2011.
4. At the beginning of 02/2011 CHERYL WALKER-JOHNSON DISCONTUNUED MY HEALTH PLAN, which is in violation of State Law. You see that we are a married couple, separated at the time.

SECOND COUNT

5. On March 04, 2011 I had the parties served, a copy of the Order to Show Cause and Supporting Declaration, Blank Response blank income and expense Dec-Property Declaration RE: Notice upon Ex parte Application for Orders.

6. On April 7, 2011, I received a letter from attorney Jesus M. Maldonado misrepresented a true fact on the Minutes in RE: HF11562540 where he stated that Cheryl Walker-Johnson was ordered to pay Ronald Johnson $620.00 per month. Your Honor, that order is $720.00 per month signed by the Judge, and place me back on her health plan. Your Honor, please keep in mind that it is April 11, 2011 and I have not been placed on her health plan.
7. The attorney is in violation of EQUAL PROTECTION which, is in the FORRTEENTH AMENDMENT also prohibits states from denying any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws. This language was designed originally to protect former slaves from discriminatory treatment after the Civil War. Its coverage, however, has been expanded to invalidate all laws and procedures that unequally by the law;; for instance, alimony statutes in many states provided alimony only for women, thus discriminating against men.

Case No.: HF11562540

Dear Mr. Maldonado, Esq:

Enclosed is a copy of your letter addressed to me and dated, April 6, 2011 in your letter you stated that I faxed you a letter demanding $720.00 per month, you then stated that my demand was in contrary to the court's order, and that my proposed order is not supported by the commissioner's directive.

My order is in fact accurate and to the point that I faxed you stated what I was ordered by the court to get $720.00 per month and place me back on her health plan. Which you have been avoiding to do so since you received the order. I suggest that you recheck your order that I faxed you. You will see $720.00 on that order.

I intend to file a motion that you are in violation of Equal Protection which, is in the Fourteenth Amendment also prohibits states from denying any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws. This language was designed originally to protect former slaves from discriminatory treatment after the Civil War. Its coverage, however, has been expanded to invalidate all laws and procedures that unreasonably discriminate. It has been invoked when classes of persons have been treated unequally by the law; for instance, alimony statutes in many states provided alimony only for women, thus discriminating against men.

Very truly yours,

Ronald Johnson

RE: Ronald Johnson v. Cheryl Walker-Johnson

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Concerning the above-captioned matter, enclosed please find copies of the following documents:

- Copy of the court's minute order for March 21, 2011, showing that the court ordered petitioner to pay $620.00 per month in spousal support;
- Copy of the proof of service, showing that your process server declared under penalty of perjury that Cheryl Walker-Johnson was served on March 4, 2011, less than the 21 days before hearing, as required for an Order to Show Cause.

We have also received your FAX letters demanding $720.00 per month in spousal support and health insurance coverage. What you demand is contrary to the court's order, and your proposed order is not supported by the commissioner's directive. We have received no documentation that you are disabled. If your diabetes actually prevents employment, please send copies of your disability rating and your most recent benefits printout with your discovery responses.

We intend to file a motion to modify or terminate your spousal support order, based on the contradictions between your "order" and the court's own records. However, Alameda County local rules require parties to meet and confer before a family law hearing to discuss disputed issues. If you wish to resolve this matter, please send us the records we requested concerning your alleged disability and we can prepare a stipulation to modify the support order. If not, we will request that the court terminate support and that you pay petitioner's attorney fees.

Very truly yours,

JESÚS M. MALDONADO
